

Discover the CFES Scholar Leader in You!

A CFES Scholar leader is someone who takes action to improve his/her school, local, state, national, or global community. A Scholar leader works to bring out the best in others so that they can develop and strengthen their leadership capacities, too.

There are many different kinds of leadership. The important thing is to commit to a leadership style and activities that fit your interests and talents!

So what kind of leader do YOU want to be?

- Mentor: Serve as a “big brother”/“big sister” to a younger student.
- Tutor: Help a younger student or peer improve their academic skills.
- Coach: Teach or encourage others in athletic, artistic, or other performance endeavors.
- Environmentalist: Help clean up and maintain the environment around your school or your community.
- Artist: Use your skills in the arts to beautify your school or community or to mentor younger students.
- Scholar: Set high academic goals for yourself and strive to achieve them, and/or work with teachers to help others achieve their goals.
- Community Volunteer: Volunteer at your church, community center, local park, or other places.
- Fundraiser: Think of ways to raise money, or collect goods for causes you believe in.
- Public Speaker: Use your public speaking skills to talk to school and community groups about causes you believe in.
- Mediator: Learn how to become a peer mediator to help fellow students get along and solve problems peacefully.
- Global Citizen: Learn about different service activities that you could be involved with to help solve problems around the world.
- Animal Supporter: Work with local animal shelters or rescue groups to make the world a better place for animals.
- Your Own Ideas:
